Description

A large 19th Century French dining table with a superb planked fruitwood top and tapering straight legs. It is a good size being just under 7 1/2 feet long and comfortably seats 8 or 10 with 2 at the ends. The end of the legs have been tipped slightly to make the table a perfect sitting height with a comfortable leg clearance of 23 1/4" (59cm) all around. The table has a lot of character and the natural colour and grain of the wood has been lightly waxed and polished to preserve its aged patina. There has been an old patch put into the top at some point and there are various signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. There used to be a small drawer at one end which has been removed and the gap filled at some point. It is a solid and sturdy piece and displays beautifully.
