Here is a pine linen cupboard, in very good condition, dating from around c.1910. Recently stripped of its original paint exposing a clean and tidy bare wood, ready for waxing or painting. There are three fitted shelves, one of which (the top shelf) is half depth. The door is hung on the original external hinges allowing it to open fully - a useful feature when accessing the cupboard. The original lock and key are in good working order. A good size storage cupboard that would work very nicely in tight spaces, including a hall, landing or bathroom/cloakroom.
