Description

High quality early 19th century Irish Regency flame mahogany folding tea table. The tops are superbly veneered in wonderful flame mahogany. The table stands on an unusual design base with central square type columns with swept legs and carved toes. The frieze is cross banded in mahogany with knurled decoration to the bottom. When the top is turned the inside is nicely fitted with divisions and storage space. The table is in very good original condition and retains its original finish. With the use of flame veneers it "stands out" from the crowd !! SIZE; 36" wide by 17 1/2" deep by 29" high CIRCA; 1800 - 1810
