Description

Antique 1915 silver H Samuel pocket watch. In 1862 when Harriet Samuel took over her father-in-law's clock-making business in Liverpool, she renamed the business H Samuel and moved the business to Manchester's Market Street where she ran the company as a mail order business. Later on, Harriet's son concentrated on the retail side of the business, and the first H Samuel retail store opened in Preston in 1890, closely followed by branches in Rochdale and throughout Lancashire. Since then the company has become nationwide with branches in many British High Streets today. This particular watch has a key-winding movement which is working nicely. A winding key is included. The movement has fitted cover which sits over the movement. The inner cover is nicely signed with various medals. The watch itself measures 53.5mm diameter excluding the stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are London import marks inside both of the case backs for 1915 with a maker's mark for H Samuel. The case is in good condition, just some light marking from use. The glass lens has a small nibble to the outer edge but overall it is in nice condition. The signed dial is in nice condition...
