Description

Very attractive 1930's Art Deco clock with an eight day movement. Originating from England this very attractive case has a mid tone figured walnut dial which acts as the back drop to the cream enamel fretted out numerals and chrome bezel. All of which rests on a stepped black bakelite plinth with chrome accents. Fully serviced by our horologist so comes to you in full working order and keeping good time with a reasonably quiet tic. Condition is great with no damage or noteworthy flaws to mention.
