Description

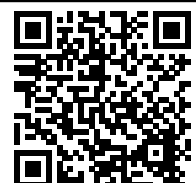

A particularly fine quality early 19th century George IV period GENTLEMAN'S DRESSING CASE. The beautiful case itself is of finest kingwood, bound in brass and opening to reveal the fully-fitted interior with 17 bottles and jars with silver-gilt tops including shaving brush; snuff box; vinaigrette etc, many with fine piercing and with hand engraved Coats-of-Arms. In the drawer to the base is a fitted pad with tools and implements, with compartments for 'jewellery' whilst within the lid is the original mahogany easel mirror. Complete with two original working keys. Hallmarked London 1826-1828. This very fine box is "temptingly" priced, as one bottle is cracked. The full price includes a replacement (which takes 3 months to make!)

Internal Ref: 1923
