Description

On first viewing of this wonderfully styled Art Deco clock one can't be not taken back by the sheer dimensions. Often this style clock would be used for bedside or a table clock but this impressive beast easily works as a mantle clock. Dating to the 1930's and French in origin this Art Deco timepiece offers everything a modernist / Art Deco enthusiast would appreciate. The clock itself is quite heavy weighing in at over 1.7 kg. The chrome case is in very good condition and shows only minimum signs of age that one would expect from a vintage piece. We've had the clock fully serviced so comes to you in good working condition. Only noteworthy aging is to the back of the clock, please see pics, nothing too detrimental but mentioned for accuracy.
