Description

Mid C19th walnut oval-topped wine table or candlestand, raised on a Solomon's knot or barley-twist column support by Charles Hindley, London. Small-scale walnut table with an oval top supported by a tapering helical column, raised upon a concave-sided triangular base with compressed bun feet beneath. The top of mellow-coloured English figured walnut with some historic stains and marks. The top fixed to the column by a circular turned collar. The underside of the collar stamped "C.Hindley & Sons, 134, Oxford St. London 42877". The London cabinet-making and furniture retail firm of Charles Hindley & Sons were active in the West End of London from 1817 to 1892. The firm supplied quality furniture appealing to both the burgeoning wealthy middle classes and aristocratic patrons. In excellent original condition with a pleasing mellow colour, and honey hue patination. H 28" W 13" D 15" England c.1860
