Description

Antique Victorian mahogany leather top pedestal desk in great original condition & full of character. It has a polished back, a tooled leather writing surface & the pedestals sit on plinth bases. The drawers have turned mahogany handles, original locks & fine dovetails. What's particularly nice is the high knee-hole height. Normally it's 24" 61 cm high, so this one is very generous in height. This desk is also that nice in-between size – not too large & not too small. It's very good quality too & has those classic Victorian corners & thumbnail mouldings. I would date this to around the 1860's period. Width – 54 inches, 138 cm Depth – 32 inches, 81 cm Knee height – 26 inches, 66 cm
