Small Antique English Inlaid Mahogany Wall Mirror - Edwardian

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA59499*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

Dating to around 1900 / 1910, late Victorian into the Edwardian period, this is a useful wall mirror in a very usable size. The mahogany frame is inlaid all around with Satinwood with fine double stringing either side. The ornate carved top is also inlaid with a handsome circular fan roundel. There is an old repaired grain crack to one piece of the carving, perfectly stable, not noticeable but mentioned purely for accuracy. Wired at the back and ready to hang and enjoy. Excellent condition measuring 14 1/2" x 9" with glass measuring 10" x 8". Item ID: 31551
