Description

A very smart and elegant photograph frame with a solid English Oak backing. This is the most popular type of photograph back where the frame can be used in both a portrait and landscape configuration. This is beautiful quality frame with silver wrapped right and around the side and angled toward the glass to the front. This has a very popular hammered design, popular during this era, with it's Arts and Crafts inspired design which bounces light like a series of jewels. It is the perfect frame for either a lady or gentleman, for a traditional or contemporary interior. The silver is fully hallmarked for London 1902, a very early Edwardian example and also stamped with the maker's initials for the top-notch silversmith, William Comyns, highly collectable. Excellent condition measuring 7 " x 5 1/2" with the glazed aperture measuring 5 3/8" x 3 5/8". Item ID: 40775 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
