Description

Gents 9ct gold automatic wrist watch from Garrard. The watch has a very good quality 25-jewel automatic movement, ETA 2472, which is working nicely. The watch measures 33.5mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the lugs. The case is 9 carat gold and there are hallmarks inside the case back for London 1969 with a case maker's mark for the British Watch Case Company. The case is in very nice condition. The back of the watch has a long service inscription. The lens is in very nice condition. The signed dial is in its original finish and it is in very good condition with original hands, centre seconds and date display (an early form of quickset where the hands are moved repeatedly backwards and forwards between 12 midnight and 8.30pm). Garrards was founded in 1735 by George Wickes. They designed, manufactured and retailed luxury jewellery, silver and watches. The company is still trading today and as well as having their headquarters in Mayfair, London, they also have a presence in Harrods, London, Geneva, Lebanon, Qatar, Dubai, Moscow and Hong Kong. Garrard was the Crown Jeweller of the United Kingdom, charged with the upkeep of the British Crown Jewels ...
