Description

These gilt mirrors are in a classic Regency style and have a typical convex glass which is in excellent condition in both frames. The Gilt frame itself is also in good condition with a little reassuring wear of course over the last 100 years or so, one being a little brighter than the other.. A very neat size these mirrors at 41/42cms in diameter and exceedingly keenly priced for a near pair of these items, possibly the best price around at the moment. Although these are not a perfect pair they are similar size and very close, we have photographed them close to one another so any small differences can be seen, but we suggest they would not be this close in a normal room setting so the slight differences would not be noticed. It is rare to find twos of these and they would normally command a lot more money than these. We have a larger one coming in with a classical eagle, somewhat more money mind you. Keep your eye on our web site.
