Description

Victorian walnut baby Sutherland table This Victorian walnut baby Sutherland table was made circa 1880. These 'baby' Sutherland tables are so useful around the home. As they are small they can be easily moved around to provide an extra surface when required. They fold down to a small narrow table that can sit against a wall or alongside a chair. Then when called upon you can use it with only 1 leaf up in place or using both. The leaves are supported by swing out legs, that swing into the base when closed. The table base consists of solid walnut double ring turned end supports and a pole stretcher joining the 2 ends. This is the desirable oval shape version and has the very attractive burl walnut top. Imagine how delightful this will look in your home as well as how useful it will be. 56cms long 22ins 25cms widest point across feet when flaps are not in use 10ins 71cms wide with both flaps in use 28ins 56cms high 22ins All dimensions are approximate We can arrange delivery nationwide or we can obtain a quote for it to be shipped overseas This item carries the Hingstons Antiques product guarantee plate.
