Description

Stunning French flame mahogany secretaire a abattant with a superb decorative mirrored interior with several drawers (including two secret) and leather inlay. The desk has its original pale grey marble top and slide out shelves in the bottom half. There is also a top and bottom draw - both of which are secure - and keys for the desk and top drawer. The piece has a beautiful clear flame on the front and sides and a rich patina. It dates from around 1850 to 1870.
