Description

19th Century French Vineyard Wine Table From Chateau Laroge, Saint Emilion This is an old wooden painted table, is painted with the coat of Arms of the Chateau Laroge, St Emillion and would have been used in the Chateau as a serving table for formal wine tastings etc. The painted finish is in fair condition, I understand that armorial items like these were kept looking good by regular repainting, a very rare and interesting piece from the Bordeaux region The table can be shown to its best advantage tipped up or laid flat to be used as a wine table The table is 44" tall, when tipped up 40" in diameter and 27" high when laid flat TAV148 Only items dated up to 1920 can be found on Selling Antiques, to see all of our stock including Mid Century and Art Deco post 1920 please view our web site We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, Delivery times vary according to your location usually 7 to 28 days We only operate an online store and regrettably viewing in person is not an option.
