Description

A fine set of six William IV mahogany dining chairs with leather drop in squab seats. English Circa 1830. Overall of elegant design and constructed from a fine choice of mahogany, the scrolled top rail finely carved with acanthus leaf design incorporating a central rosette, held by shaped mahogany supports joined by a central carved lotus leaf rail. The drop in squab upholstered in a piped chestnut coloured leather hyde above a panelled frieze flanked by conforming inset carved rosette's over finely ring turned tapering reeded front legs with splay legs to the rear. Offered in excellent condition having been restored in a traditional manner retaining a striking colour and patina to the waxed polished figured mahogany. A good set of comfortable dining chairs that are of strong stable construction and ready for use. Note a good use of dense timber, finely carved with a superb original patina. Dimensions Width 19 inches - 48.5cm Depth 20 1/4 inches - 51.5cm Height 34 inches - 86.5cm Seat Height 18 1/2 inches - 47cm
