Description

A superb rare set of three glass spirit flasks with silver and red, green and blue enamel tops to tell the difference between each spirit that went into them. The flasks sit snugly in to the finely made tan leather case with its hinged lid and strap with a buckle to fasten it. The condition of this set is generally good. There is a small edge chip to two of the bottles tops which have been smoothed and polished. The silver tops are hallmarked London 1915/16
