Description

Very rare and very beautiful 1820 three handled loving cup decorated with three different hand painted vignettes of flowers on an apple green background, and with a gold painted rim. Provenance: Estate of the Right Honourable Sir Edward du Cann (died 31 August 2017), a former British Member of Parliament and Chairman of the Conservative Party. A loving cup or toasting bowl is a shared drinking container traditionally used at weddings and banquets. It usually has two or three handles and is often made of silver. Loving cups are often given as trophies to winners of games or other competitions. They can be found in several European cultures, including the Celtic quaich and the French coupe de mariage, and the Russian bratina. The loving cup is passed from person to person "uniting all who drink from it in eternal brotherhood". Condition very good, with just a small amount of wear to the gold rim. All of the items that we advertise for sale have been as accurately described as possible and are in excellent condition, unless otherwise stated. Please note that we are also able to arrange a full shipping service for our customers. We offer a 14 day returns policy...
