Description

A stunning addition to your visiting card case collection, this solid or sterling silver example has a stunning engraving both back and front. The front appears to be a vignette of spring Daffodils and the back looks like Wild Roses. The hinge and clasp are in full working order and once opened the interior reveals a chocolate brown leather interior with space for business cards and to small sections for postage stamps. This one actually retains a few visiting cards from the past owner " Mrs Leslie A. Evett " of Clifton, Bristol, a very smart address. The case is hallmarked for Birmingham 1887, together with the makers mark H & A for Horton & Allday, a good Victorian example. This card case comes complete with it's original leather presentation case lined with velvet and cream silk. The silk is gold printed with the retailer's mark for the very famous and illustrious " Mappin Brothers / 220 Regent St / 66 Cheapside / London " above this is the Royal Warrant with " By Her Majestys Special Appointment " underneath. Excellent condition measuring 3 7/8" x 2 3/4" with the presentation case measuring 5" x 4". Item ID: 31531
