Description

A fabulous antique Ziegler carpet with exquisite wool and dyes. The real thing, not a Pakistani copy or one of the boring mahal carpets that are often mislabelled. This one, with its extra wide pale yellow borders and its elegantly drawn field design is without doubt from the coveted Ziegler and co workshops, woven in Sultanabad (Now Arak) in the late 19th century. The piece has been professionally and virtually invisibly reduced in length, aside from that it is in very good condition with decent pile, the blacks are corroded, giving it an almost sculpted feel. One of the most beautiful carpets I've handled in 30 years. Clean and floor ready.
