Description

C 1900-1910 a large cast iron doorstop thought to be of Dionysus, or Bacchus. It weighs approximately 4.9kgs and is in good condition. The doorstop measures 29cm in height; the base is 17.5cm at the back, 14cm across the shaped front, and is approximately 6.5cm in depth. The good details in the casting can be seen in the face and the grapes around the bottom of his hat, the top of which makes a good handle. Postage and packing is included for the UK mainland and for outside areas or abroad please contact us for a delivery quote.
