Description

Wonderful opportunity to acquire a substantially sized 1930s Art Deco French ceiling light which is a half way house between skyscraper and a pineapple! Frosted glass segmented jutting out spikes of glass which are tiered like a wedding cake form the most wonderful looking lighting. Dating to the 1930s and originating from France this light looks impressive both on and off and an ideal size for most rooms. It sits within a chrome stepped gallery which sits flush to the ceiling, great if you have low ceilings or want something simplistic and not with chains, hooks etc. Great condition, free from damage, just normal age related wear. It will need to be re-wired.
