Description

This is a good looking gilt wall mirror from just over 100 years ago. mirror dated 1908. The Gilt is in good condition having been refinished in the recent past, the mirror glass is convex, original and in excellent condition. The eagle may not quite rate on a Roman standard but is certainly still impressive. Dating some 80 /90 years younger than a Regency one it is still an antique in its own right and a handsome example that you would easily think could be earlier, but at around 10% of the one from 1820 or so it is a superb buy. Carriage can be organised with specialist carrier for £60/70 to most parts of the country. The mirror is 50 cms in diameter and 78cms tall overall from top of eagle to bottom of base.
