Description

There's no makers name but we sourced this clock in France on one of our trips so we think it's likely it originates from there. It's in great condition for its 90 odd years, the chrome is as bright and crisp as when first made and the dial is also very clean. Ideal size for desks or mantel area. Very stylish clock and slim line, ideal if you like the modernist /minimal look. We've had this clock fully serviced by an horologist so comes to you in good working order.
