Description

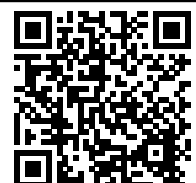

A very smart and elegant pair of English sterling silver napkin rings, perfect if you are looking for something simple or with a more contemporary design. 95 years old and fully hallmarked with the highly collectable Chester assay office and the year 1924; they also have the makers initials for the silversmith, Stokes and Ireland. They come in their original case (in excellent condition) with the fitted interior and cream silk on the interior of the lid; it is here that the retailers mark can be found "Pierce and Sons Ltd., Silversmiths, Leeds, Leicester & York". Superb clean condition and a perfect gift. The box measures 5 1/4" x 3 1/4" x 2 5/8" and each napkin ring measuring 1 3/4" in diameter x 1 1/4".
