Description

An attractive antique pine linen cupboard with a top drawer that was originally used for storing medicine, or items needed out of reach. The original ornate brass drop handles and key escutcheons are in good order. This is a very nice example of a c.1910's storage cupboard, with its slender vertical columns either side of the panelled double doors. Inside the cupboard are three fitted shelves. Recently stripped exposing a lovely clean and tidy bare wood, ready for waxing or painting. Please contact us for a price for painting the cupboard. Height 54", width 38.5", depth 21"
