Description

A nice farmhouse dining table dating from the late 19th Century. It stands on tapering turned legs with a planked top. It has been cleaned and has a smooth waxed finish and a pleasant warm colour with signs of age and use. It is a very sturdy table and a good height to sit at with a good leg clearance of 23 1/2" / 60cm all the way around. A nice small size that still sits four adults comfortably. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton. London £50.
