Description

Very attractive, 1930s Art Deco heavily figured walnut veneered stool. Although originally purposed as a bedroom stool there is nothing to stop you using this as a regular footstool. It's recently been recovered in a soft cream leather and shows little to no signs of use. The two curved supports are the real hero of this piece so simple and so stylish. Condition is very good, we've fully restored the woodwork and so comes to you in super condition.
