Description

A good quality pair of late 19th century solid mahogany collector's or specimen chests with trade label for 'David Souttar of Aberdeen'. Each with a moulded top above five finely dovetailed drawers with original ornate brass handles and escutcheons and fitted with working 'secure lever' locks, standing on a plinth base with shaped front. In good condition with good colour & grain, with minor marks consistent with age, the drawers open and close smoothly, one chest has a very small chip and watermark which we will take out, the other is slightly lighter from the sun. These could also be useful for filing purposes. The overall dimensions at the largest points are approximately Width - 19 1/4in (49cm) Depth - 16 1/2in (41.5cm) Height - 45in (114cm) Internal sizes of the drawers: 15 1/4in wide x 14 1/2in deep (38.7cm x 36cm) Heights graduated from 5 1/4in to 7 1/4in high (13.5cm to 18cm) Note: David Souttar, Cabinetmaker & Upholsterer, is recorded in the 1899-1900 Aberdeen Post Office Directory at 183 Rosemount Place and 28 Watson Street, Aberdeen. Ref: 0549 We can arrange to deliver this to most UK mainland destinations for £120.
