Description

A lovely example of a large double door antique pine French wardrobe, which totally dismantles for delivery. Dating from around c.1910, it is in very good condition for its age. Having recently been stripped, exposing a clean bare wood ready for waxing or painting. There are three bottom drawers, all sliding nicely with the original little wooden knobs and ornate key escutcheons. The original door lock and key are in good working order. The wardrobe is stood on attractive bracket feet, typical of french design of this time. Height 82", width 62", depth 22.5", internal depth 18.5"
