Description

Large pair of C19th cast bronze candlesticks in the C16th Italian Mannerist late Renaissance style . Impressive pair of intricately designed and cast bronze candlesticks on circular bases . The uprights with male and female figural terms central detail. The candle knozzles with scroll-work details to the sides, the tapering bodies with raised mask and ribbon swag casting, the bases with cast floral decoration. Removed from a local listed property where the family had previously used them as decoration in a private chapel. Both candlesticks have achieved a good aged , mellow golden patination. A striking and stylish pair of statement candlesticks of great scale and presence. H 24" W (base) 10" D (base) 10" Italy c. 1850
