Description

Edwardian walnut small bureau This Edwardian walnut small bureau was made circa 1910. It was made by a cabinetmaker using recycled redundant timber, this is why this example of a bureau has such a period look. Made of a very desirable small size so that it can fit into any home. Bureaus are a wonderful piece of furniture as you not only have the beautiful exterior but also the extra charm once the fall is opened and it reveals the fitted interior with a cupboard, pigeon holes and small drawers. The onset of the i-pad and lap tops mean that these desks can be used easily in the modern home. This bureau has 4 graduated drawers, each fitted with the original brass handles and crossbanded with herringbone inlays. The desk stands on shaped bracket feet. Imagine how good this will look in your home, you can place it in a hall, study, drawing room, in that space that is always awkward, and even in a bedroom. 65cms wide 25 1/2ins 42cms deep 16 1/2ins 100cms high 39 1/4ins All dimensions are approximate We can arrange delivery nationwide or we can obtain a quote for it to be shipped overseas This item carries the Hingstons Antiques product guarantee plate. This gives you the peace...
