Description

An "Exacta" full hunter pocket watch from H Samuel. The watch has a stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is stamped English manufacture. In 1862 when Harriet Samuel took over her father-in-law's clock-making business in Liverpool, she renamed the business H Samuel and moved the business to Manchester's Market Street where she ran the company as a mail order business. Later on, Harriet's son concentrated on the retail side of the business, and the first H Samuel retail store opened in Preston in 1890, closely followed by branches in Rochdale and throughout Lancashire. Since then the company has become nationwide with branches in many British High Streets today. The watch itself measures 50.4mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is rolled gold and is the Meteor model made by the Dennison Watch Case Company. The case has minor marking from use and a small "ding" to the back but overall it is in nice condition. The front cover has monogrammed initials. The winding crown pushes in to open the front cover. Inside there is an acrylic lens. The original glasses lenses were often replaced with acrylic if they broke as it ...
