Description

A stylish small antique Edwardian mahogany and satinwood inlaid desk. With one large drawer above a knee-hole, next to four smaller drawers. Standing on tapered legs culminating in ceramic casters with decorative spandrels, the legs to the knee-hole united by stretchers. The drawers all have small brass knobs, brass thread escutcheons and brass locks (comes with a key). To the top is leather cloth writing surface which show signs of age and wear. The piece is in well figured mahogany with good original patina and is profusely inlaid with satinwood banding to the fronts, sides and top. Construction/Wood: Mahogany / Satinwood Inlay Condition Report: Solid and sturdy with general wear and marks commensurate with age. Wear and scuffs to the inside and outside edges. Lots of wear and tear to the leather top, usable but would benefit a new leather. Some of the spandrels missing to the back and sides. Beautiful figuring and warm patina to the mahogany. Dimensions: Width: 99cm Height: 76cm Depth: 51cm Knee-hole Aperture Width: 53cm x Height: 59cm
