Description

In Cuban mahogany and raised on four turned legs with pad feet. The "diamond" shape of this table is not unique but is quite unusual and is ideally suited to a corner setting or if opened, as a centre table. It is in very original condition and has taken on a good colour, patina and does have some marks commiserate with its age. 710mm high, 1340mm wide (at the widest) and 670mm deep. Circa 1750.
