Description

This Victorian walnut adjustable music stool was made circa 1885. It is the best type for using at a piano as it has a knob each side that you turn to raise or lower the seat to the height you require. The stool has ring turned legs with a similar turned H shape stretcher that join to each leg. The outer frame of the seat is of solid figured walnut. We have reupholstered the seat and covered it in a neutral oatmeal material. 54cms widest point across the turning knobs 21 1/2ins 36cms deep 14ins 47cms high when lowered 18 1/2ins 57cms high at highest level 22 1/2ins All sizes are approximate We can arrange delivery nationwide or we can obtain a quote for it to be shipped overseas This item carries the Hingstons Antiques product guarantee plate.
