Description

This fine example of the classical seated figure of Hermes, the god of trade, heraldry, merchants, commerce, roads, thieves, trickery, sports, travellers and athletes in ancient Greek religion and mythology: the son of Zeus and the Pleiad Maia, has been excellently modelled with high detail to his face, hands and feet. It has a rich dark brown patina and is mounted onto a well carved marble base in the form of a rock. This shows the quality of this item as many lesser examples are seated on a bronze base. This piece is in excellent condition with no repairs.
