Description

Pair of Edwardian walnut small sofas This Pair of Edwardian walnut small sofas were made circa 1910. These delightful sofas have a solid walnut frame and made in the French manner. The Edwardian era was known as the age of elegance, and these are fine examples of this. Each sofa with a separate feather filled cushion. The walnut frames flow organically with delicate carving on the crest of the back. They stand on well carved cabriole legs and out swept arms. These will make a fantastic addition to your home, and without a doubt be the envy of your family and friends. Whilst they look delicate, they are strong, comfortable and will be fine for use in the modern home. These have been totally renovated and reupholstered by our specialist craftsmen.
