Description

-Welcome to Mersham Manor Antiques- A very charming Georgian solid oak sideboard. c.1820. The single plank top has a protruding moulded edge, over two pine lined drawers, with turned bun handles and bone lozenge escutcheons, with the original lock. Below are two panelled cupboard doors, again with turned bun handles and bone lozenge escutcheons, which open to reveal a pine shelved interior. Nice panelled sides and the original back boards. The colour of the oak is a rich medium colour, with a good characterful patina. In excellent antique condition. With minor expected general signs of age and use. Very solid, sturdy and strong.
