Description

A wonderful quality and completely original late 18th century TEA CADDY in remarkably good condition. Possibly Dutch, this delightful caddy features a slightly domed top with its original cast brass handle and inlaid with an oval marquetry portrait and flowers. The front is similarly profusely inlaid with flowers; both sides feature very smart marquetry "hatchwork" whilst the back is unusually inlaid with a marquetry gaming table! The interior retains its original lead lining surmounted by its original kingwood-veneered lid. The cast bronze handle and escutcheon are both original as are the four cast bronze feet. 9ins wide.

Internal Ref: 1949
