Description

Superb set of 10 William IV mahogany Trafalgar type dining chairs c.1830. Gracefully curved backrests featuring rollover tops and symmetrically arranged flame mahogany veneers within a simple carved lozenge flanked with raised buttons. Over crisply carved and pierced back stretchers with anthemion detail at the centre. Moulded front edge to the rear stiles continuing along the side rails and below the seat. Woven bergere or canework seats raised on sabre front legs, also moulded to match. Excellent condition, the canework would appear to have been recently replaced and is of very good quality. Frames have been cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Squab cushions could be made for chairs (example illustrated) including fabric of type shown and fixings for £35 per seat. Dimensions: width 19", depth 20", height 34".
