Description

Good example of a Satinwood single wardrobe dating from the early 20th century. It is an attractive piece of nice small proportions with a mirrored door. The door is flanked either side by pretty art nouveau style carved panels. It has a useful single drawer at the bottom of the wardrobe and an internal hanging rail with additional hooks. It is in good original condition. The interior is clean and tidy and the drawer opens smoothly. There are some small old splits in the moulding around the top and some other minor signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. The best description comes from the pictures so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask.
