Description

A lovely Queen Anne style wing armchair dating from the late 19th century. It is good quality with a classic shape and generous proportions. It has a mahogany frame with cabriole legs and pad feet with its original ceramic castors below. The upholstery is not new and there are some light marks and minor stains here and there which could possibly be cleaned off. It is a good solid frame to work with for re-upholstery or is perfectly useable as it is. The chair is in good overall condition. It runs well on its castors and is a good sturdy chair. There are some general marks and small knocks around the legs but nothing detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. We have a network of national couriers and operate fortnightly deliveries to London for £50. Nationwide delivery available, please get in touch for an accurate quote.
