Description

A very good cloisonné vase of large size and unusual decoration depicting Jurojin to the front and a triple mon on the reverse. It is all silver wire and the mounts are silver. It is by the renowned maker Hayashi Tanigoro and is signed with a silver wire seal on the base. The quality of the enamelling and wiring is of the highest standard as you would expect from this excellent maker and the condition is perfect. Altogether a rare and imposing cloisonné vase. Purchased from an important USA collection.
