Description

1913 silver Coventry Astral half hunter pocket watch from H Williamson. The watch has a seven jewel stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed with the Astral name and it has a patent number of 21180 which dates back to 1913 and relates to the mounting of winding wheels in keyless watches. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding stem and loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside all three covers for Birmingham 1913 with a case maker's mark for Aaron Dennison of the Dennison Watch Case Company, a prolific manufacturer of watch cases for various watch companies. The watch has a small lens to the front which is surrounded by dark blue enamel filled Roman numerals. There is a small chip to the small lens. The case has three small knocks to the central section and a series of small "dings" to the back. The winding crown pushes in to open the front cover. Inside, there is an acrylic lens which is in good condition. The white enamel dial is signed Coventry Astral. There is a short hairline crack by number 5 but it is faint. Blued steel hands, a subsidiary...
