Description

Aside the appearance and super rarity of this marvelous clock on first viewing, one can't be distracted away from the condition of the clock as well, which for it's 90 odd years is nothing less than amazing. This really is an eyebrow raising clock. Impressively large and heavy this has to be one of the best examples of it's kind available on the market at the moment. The temptation to keep it is very high. Dating to the 1930's and originates from France. The peach mirrored dial has etched and highly stylized Art Deco numerals. The mirror is in exceptional condition and contrasts beautifully with slightly darker numerals and clock hands. The mirror is enveloped between a heavy copper plated frame, which appears to be solid brass underneath. All of this is rests on a walnut base. The movement is a French 8 day strike on a platform escapement which sounds out the hours and quarters. The tic is reasonably quiet although audible and the strike is a pleasant ding, again not particularly loud. This clock has been fully and professionally serviced and so is in very good working order. Comes with a key. We defy the lucky new owner not to fall instantly in love with this awesome ti...
