Description

A stunning French triptych mirror from the renown company of Miroir Brot of Paris. The famous company of Miroir Brot owes its establishment to Francois Brot who in 1826, in the heart of the Old Paris, near the historic Place de la République achieved great success with their production of bespoke mirrors and very quickly became the first in their field in both France and throughout Europe. In 1875, Brot creates and patents an absolutely revolutionary mirror, the triple mirror which immediately acquires a worldwide reputation. This is the mirror that the Connoisseur simply called 'un miroir Brot'. This stunning mirror is made of walnut with each mirror set within a solid brass frame and having quartered walnut veneered back panels. The 3 mirrors are housed in the stand which has subtle carved detail, applied patrae and stands on outswept legs with casters. The whole including the mirror plates in excellent condition with no damage or repairs. Dimensions:- Height...69.75"/ 177cm. Width Closed...25.25"/ 64cm. Depth at Base...24"/ 61cm. Open Max.
