Description

Early 19th century mahogany work-box; the lid inlaid with an oval plaque with a stylised-leaf patera in coloured timbers, within an ebony-strung panel; the front with an ebony-strung panel with angled corners, above a compartmented drawer with an ivory escutcheon and knob-handles; the interiors lined with old, probably original, rose paper and the sides with original cast-brass flower-basket ring-handles. John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where we hold an Open Weekend every November. Open 9.00am – 5.00pm, Tuesday to Friday, 10.00am - 4.00pm on Saturday. A prior phone call or email before visiting is always a good idea and we are happy to be contacted outside of business hours.
