Description

A nice example of an attractive Corinthian column table lamp. It is made of marble with gilt mounts and feet. Most likely once an oil lamp it has now been converted to an electric table lamp and re-wired with brown braided cord and fitted with a brass bayonet bulb holder. It is in good working order and has been PAT Tested for electrical safety. The lamp is in good condition and displays well. There are some minor marks and general signs of age but nothing detrimental. It has been cleaned and is ready for use. Please note the bulb and shade are not included. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide delivery £15.
